

AN INVITATION TO SUCCESS

What if you could tap the insight of the largest, most influential network of professional trainers in the world? How far would it propel your business? Or the organizations you advise? As a member of Inscape, the premier publisher of assessment tools for professional trainers since 1976, anything is possible. Powerful networking. Wholesale pricing. Hands-on training and continued education. Increased revenue. This is just a sampling of the many advantages of being part of the Inscape community. Join us. Together, we can continue to create success by inspiring, motivating, and re-energizing individuals and organizations around the world.

THE POWER OF COMMUNITY

Thousands of members strong, the Inscape network is a collection of highly skilled trainers, coaches, and facilitators who regularly collaborate through our Exchange programs to share individual insight, perspective, and expertise. One method of communication between our members is with MindShare Exchange, a sophisticated online forum where you are free to ask other Inscape members questions and to contribute your own insights. Another online resource is Solution Exchange, a special section where you can review best practice case studies and learn from Inscape experts in your field.

DISC® AND BEYOND

Inscape pioneered DiSC® assessment methodology in 1976. Today, our members lead the world in helping organizations harness the power of DiSC. By becoming an Inscape member, you gain access to our growing line of proprietary DiSC applications – DiSC Classic, DiSC PPSS, and the exciting new DiSC Indra™. As natural complements to DiSC, we offer dozens of research-validated tools focused on specific areas of personal growth, including time management, listening, teams, and diversity.

EMPOWERED WITH TECHNOLOGY

Inscape members capitalize on the latest technology. Working with top software engineers, we develop proprietary programs to streamline workflow and maximize output. One example is EPIC, our exclusive online management tool. It connects you to online Inscape database resources where you are able to create and digitally deliver personally branded, highly customized profile reports to your clients. Many of our most popular Inscape products are available in online versions.

WHERE INFORMATION AND EXPERIENCE CONVERGE

Staying abreast of new developments is a challenge all trainers face. As an Inscape member, you'll receive thorough member orientation and continuing in-depth education. Our ongoing, regionally located MindLab sessions are dynamic, hands-on learning environments where you can focus on the best new practices of operating your business, applying new training techniques, and implementing new assessment tools.

THE INSCAPE BUSINESS CONFERENCE

Join your fellow Inscape members at our annual Inscape Business Conference. This much anticipated event is an opportunity for us to showcase the newest Inscape products and programs, as well as recognize individual achievements over the past year. For our members, it's a chance to meet face-to-face, form and renew personal connections, and strengthen the network for years to come.

GRAB HOLD OF OPPORTUNITY

World-class network. World-class products. World-class people. Talk to an Inscape member today about becoming a member of the world's most respected and successful training and consulting community.
